

It is with great sadness that we learned of the recent passing of Aspen Hall of Fame inductee Kay Bucksbaum. Kay and her late husband Matthew embraced the Aspen Idea when their love affair with our community began in the early 1950s. Kay and Matthew gave unwavering support to not only the Aspen Hall of Fame and all that it stands for, but to many Aspen organizations especially the Aspen Music School, the Aspen Institute, the Aspen Center for Environmental Studies, Anderson Ranch, the Aspen Historical Society and Aspen Valley Hospital Foundation, among others.

Kay and Matthew truly epitomized all that the Aspen Hall of Fame stands for:

“To honor individuals who have embraced the spirit of Aspen through their significant and lasting impact on the community; and who have demonstrated excellence and leadership in areas including civic activities, culture, sports, and philanthropy. We seek to inspire the next generation to follow in their footsteps.”

With deepest sympathy,
